ACCUSES TWO MEN

He Says They Bound and Robbed Him in His Academy.

Charged with being the men who robbed Meredith Frothingham, dancing mester, of $1,000 in jewelry and $25 in cash, after they had bound him with his own neckties at his academy, Nos. 9 and 11 East Fifty-ninth street, Joseph Walker, alias Joe Clayton, and James Kane were arraigned in the Jefferson Market Police Court to-day.

Walker, who is thirty years old, lives at No. 328 East Sixteenth street. His picture in the Rogues' Gallery is No. 10.349. Kane is twenty-two years old, and says he is a paper-hanger, living at No. 250 West Twenty-fourth street. Frothingham said he knew both men, and it was on his description that Detective-Sergeants Dugam and Kinsjer arrested Walker last night and Kane today.

After a reception at Frothingham's place these two men remained behind when the other dancers had gone. The victim said that when he allowed them to come into his dressing-room they tied him with neckties, gagged him and took his valuables. The robbers then telephoned Mr. Frothingham's sister that he was in trouble. She went to the place and liberated him.

FREDERICK DOLL Pianos

$5 Cash, and $5 a Month

The Special CHRISTMAS Terms, That Make These Excellent Pianos as Easy to Buy as the Worthless Sorts

I E spent two years searching the piano market before we selected the pianos that we would sell for less than Two Hundred Dollars. There was no trouble in selecting the Chickering-the whole world knew its pre-eminence; but when we sold low-priced pianos the reputation of JOHN WANAMAKER had to be upheld, and we could not place in this store any piano at ANY PRICE, which would reflect discredit upon the Wanamaker name. Two years of prospecting and testing satisfied us of the permanent and worthy qualities of the FREDERICK DOLL Pianos; and during the FOUR YEARS in which we have been selling these excellent pianos there has never been a case of dissatisfaction with the investment, by any purchaser of them.

With the whole market flooded with the product of "Bargain Piano" factories, and the papers filled with frantic offers to tempt people to buy instruments that will soon become mere rattle boxes, the Wanamaker Store

Presents the Handsome and Worthy FREDERICK DOLL PIANOS

At the Easiest Terms That Anyone Could Desire

So that resort to the worthless pianos is no longer tempting, even on the matter of price and payment. And the only reference required is to have your responsible friends assure us that you will meet this small obligation.

DON'T PUT THE MATTER OFF-We have only about a hundred and fifty Frederick Doll Pianos, that are obtainable before Christmas; and they are now being claimed very rapidly. Pianos purchased now, will be delivered at once, or later on, as you desire.

Price, $185. $5 Cash and $5 a Month. The entire charge for interest during the period of payment amounts to $10.80 extra. And you secure a piano that is worth a hundred dollars more, measured by other instruments on the market.
